Five Members Added to Local Service Council

The addition of five new members to the Torrance Service Center Community Council was announced at the meeting held Aug. 4 at 6:30 p.m. in Torrance Service Center.

They are Mrs. Frances Wheeler, Floyd Miller, Helen Miller, Margaret Voorhees and R. R. Smith.

Due to the fact that the Torrance Service Center is outgrowing its quarters with the Torrance Chamber of Commerce at 1119 Sartori ave., the council appointed a committee composed of Sam Levy, C. Earl Conner and Jack Miller to investigate possible larger quarters in the community.

Ralph Shaw and Dr. Leo G. Athans, War Chest representatives, were present and discussed the problems of the community, including the need for full time representatives of the Y.M.C.A. and Boy Scouts. C. W. Pfeiffer, Mrs. Mary L. Eggleston and Miss Virginia Hill, secretary, represented the Council of Social Agencies.

Community Council members present included James L. Lynch, Harry B. Lewis, Kenneth Beight, Jack Miller, C. Earl Conner, Mrs. Helen Miller, Sam Levy, Wallace Post and chairman Hillman R. Lee.

JUNIOR FIREMEN OF STRIP DEPARTMENT MAKE REAL FIRE RUNS; SAVE HOMES

The old, old dream that most boys have of growing up to become a fireman has become a reality for a group of local lads.

The Junior Firemen, under the supervision of Capt. Russell Beigel of the Los Angeles Fire Department, experienced the thrill and excitement of real fire runs, serving the Los Angeles Shoestring strip east of Torrance. Volunteers living in the area are wanted.

With the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Page, Capt. Beigel organized this Junior Department in the spring of 1943 and since that time the boys have been given credit for saving five homes from serious fire damage, along with preventing many grass fires from spreading and destroying nearby fences.

The boys who work with Capt. Beigel are: Rudy Andria, Jack Peirce, Nevin, George Border, Darrell Keifer, Corrald Keifer, Marvin Poer, Bobby Poer, Kenneth Stonebreaker, Dennis Spratt and Bobby Meyers. Johnny Page is honorary captain and Jimmy Page is honorary lieutenant of the department.

A Model A Ford truck furnished by Page was converted into a fire truck complete with hose, ladders and other necessary equipment. Attached to this truck is a 500 gallon pump-trailer which has been supplied by the Army. The outfits worn by the boys were donated by the OCD. The boys also wear armbands.

A practice drill is held every other Sunday morning and is carried out like that of a regular run with each boy performing a special duty.

The fire station is located in a garage next to Page's service station, Carson and Harvard, and is shared by the Auxiliary Firemen and Los Angeles Air Raid Wardens of Zone 14.

The territory from which the Junior Firemen receive their calls is called the Shoestring strip and is bounded by Normandie and Western aces, 226th and 213th sts.

Mt. Vesuvius Eruption Seen By Local Man

The spectacular eruption of Mt. Vesuvius was witnessed recently by Staff Sgt. Glenn Ripper, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Eipper, 25338 Pennsylvania ave., Lomita, according to a recent dispatch from the 12th Air Force.

The sight was described as the greatest thrill experienced by the soldier in two years of foreign service.

Eipper, overseas since July, 1942, has participated in major engagements in Egypt, Tunisia, Libya, Sicily and southern Italy. His fighter group provided the aerial support for the British 8th Army in its relentless drive to chase the Germans and Italians from Africa.

Recently discarding P-40 Warhawk planes, the group gained new fame by adopting P-47 Thunderbolts for low level strafing and bombing. These were the first to carry 1,000 pound bombs under each wing of the fighter-bomber.

Enlisting in the Army in January, 1942, Eipper went through Fort MacArthur and trained at Sheppard Field, Texas, at Champaign Field, Ill., and at the Curtiss-Wright Engine School at Buffalo, N. Y. He also saw duty at Quonset Point and Hills-grove Airport, R. I. He has three brothers in the service—Jack, 29, with the Infantry in the Southwest Pacific, and Robert, 22, and Clarence, Jr., 25, in the Navy.
